What you'll get

Two-day's training delivered by people with genuine, relevant and successful business governance experience.

Practical tools you can take away and implement to get your governance journey truly started.

Increased confidence and the ability to implement good governance practices in your business.

Opportunities to connect with like-minded people and learn tips and tricks from each other as well as the facilitators.

GEAR-Up will help you...

Our GEAR-Up programme does three clever things...

- 1 It demystifies governance and makes it an easy to achieve practice in any business
- 2 It helps business owners identify the right kind of governance for their business' situation
- 3 It gives you the tools that will make good governance easy to integrate into your business and become part of what you do
